

Prof. Biju Varkkey

Professor, Human Resources Management, IIM Ahmedabad

Prof. Biju Varkkey is the Faculty Member at IIM Ahmedabad in the Human Resource Management Area, where he teaches in the graduate, executive development and doctoral programs. He chaired the task force for ePGP, IIMAs online Master Degree program and was also the Founder Chairperson of the same (2016-2020).

He obtained his Master degree in Human Resource Management from Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala and Fellow in Management title from NIBM, Pune. His professional experience spans industry, consulting and leading management schools, having taught at IIM Lucknow and MDI Gurgaon. He has worked on various commissioned assignments with the UNDP, ILO, IOM and organizations like UNITES and ITUC, and has also coordinated the Paycheck India project, a part of the global Wage Indicator project. Author of more than 35 case studies and numerous research papers and cases in various national and international journals of repute, Prof Varkkey's consulting portfolio includes assignments for the government, autonomous bodies, private sector, MNC's and educational institutes.

Besides, he serves as an Independent Director and Member of Committees (HR, Audit, Nomination Committee, and Customer Service) of public companies, invited member of Board level HR related committees, and advises firms, startups and NGO's about organization, succession and HR systems.